

Mile Tree kindergarteners are showing the seeds that they will begin planting in their classrooms. These vegetables will be harvested for the survival center thru our "Hands are for Helping" project funded by W.H.A.T. Graziano Gardens has delivered our supplies and we are ready to start!